SUMMER 2025

Why promote Creativity?

In today's rapidly evolving world, creativity is a key component of success, enabling students to adapt and thrive in any field they choose.

By hosting Creator Camp at your campus, you're providing students with opportunities to explore new technologies, experiment with storytelling, and develop digital skills that are essential for the future.

These experiences not only enrich their academic journey but also foster a passion for learning that extends beyond the classroom.

Let's inspire the next generation of creators together!

"They have been a joy to work with."

We have been partnered with the crew at Creator Camp for the past 3 years at our school and they have been a joy to work with. They bring an enthusiasm to their classes due to the excitement they have for what they are delivering. It is a joy to watch them develop their programs so they can reach more students and offer new content.

Why Partner with Creator Camp?

IMPACT HUNDREDS

We all cherish those fond memories of summer camp from our childhoods.

These experiences are priceless, and now you have the chance to create that same environment where new memories will be made.

This is no small responsibility, which is why we only seek partnerships with those who are genuinely committed to supporting the next generation.

(a.k.a. you.)

PUT YOUR SPACE TO GOOD USE

Transform unused classroom space into vibrant hubs of creativity and innovation.

By repurposing these areas, we create dynamic environments where students can explore new technologies, collaborate on projects, and unleash their imaginations!

MAXIMIZE YOUR REACH

By hosting our camps, your school can push itself as a tech-forward institution, known within the community for embracing creativity and innovation.

Additionally, many of our campers are inspired to become students at the schools that host our programs, creating a natural pathway for enrollment growth and strengthening your school's presence in the community.

Our Story

I'm so glad you asked.

Creator Camp was born from a shared belief among a group of childhood friends who wanted to make a difference in how children engage with technology.

We were always passionate about creativity and tech, and as we pursued different paths, we realized something was missing in today's public education — an emphasis on creativity within tech learning.

We launched our first Creator Camp in 2021, offering classes in animation and filmmaking, and the response was overwhelming.

The Children loved it, and their parents were so thrilled we added two extra weeks just to accommodate. We quickly realized we were onto something special.

Fueled by this success, we expanded rapidly, doubling our locations and adding new camps each year.

But our mission has always remained the same — to inspire children to view technology not just as a source of entertainment, but as a way to bring their ideas to life.

In a world where technology is often seen as a distraction, we want to show kids that it can be a powerful tool for creativity, problem-solving, and innovation.
